What will Foundation read this half term?

The Colour Monster Goes To School

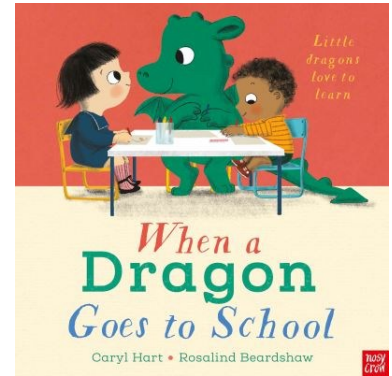

Anna Llenas

From music lessons, to lunchtime, to making new friends, the Colour Monster's first day of school is filled with exciting new adventures.

Starting School

Janet and Alan Ahlberg

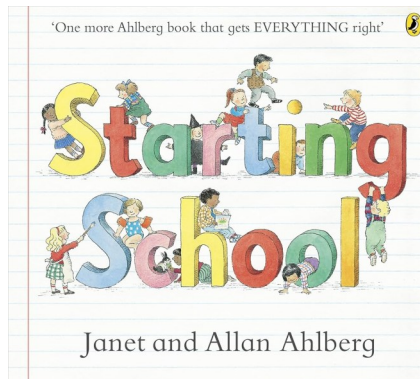

This picture book follows children on a journey right from their very first day to the end of the school year. By now it's a classic but it still gets every single thing right about starting big school!

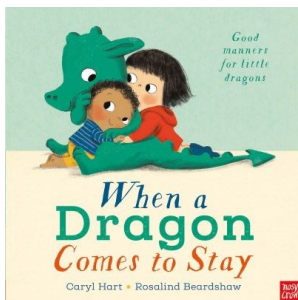

When a Dragon Goes To School

Caryl Hart and Rosalind Beardshaw

When a dragon goes to school, will she enjoy a book in the reading den and save her lunchtime treats for a friend? Or will she throw the crayons and refuse to share? She's going to need her friends to help her behave herself . . .

When a Dragon Comes To Stay

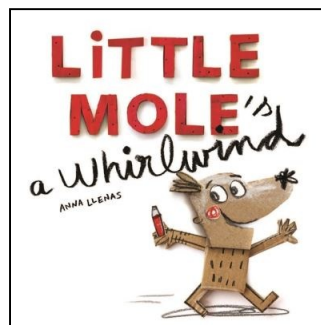

Caryl Hart and Rosalind Beardshaw

Good manners can be tricky...especially when you're a dragon!

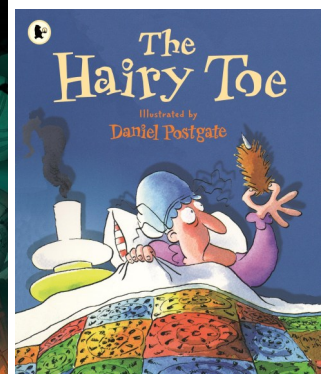

Little Mole's A Whirlwind

Anna Llenas

Little Mole can't stand still. He messes about. He gets distracted. He loses things. He breaks things ... he never stops! He's going to need some help...

Ask a reader: Mrs Waring's favourite books!

The Santa Trap and The Hairy Toe make me laugh every time—they are so silly!
