Y4 Computing N2K – Creating Media – Audio Production Autumn 2

Concepts

Information Technology

Use technology purposefully to create, organise, store, manipulate and retrieve digital content.

Digital Literacy

Recognise common uses of information technology beyond school. Use technology safely, respectfully and responsibly.

Key Skills

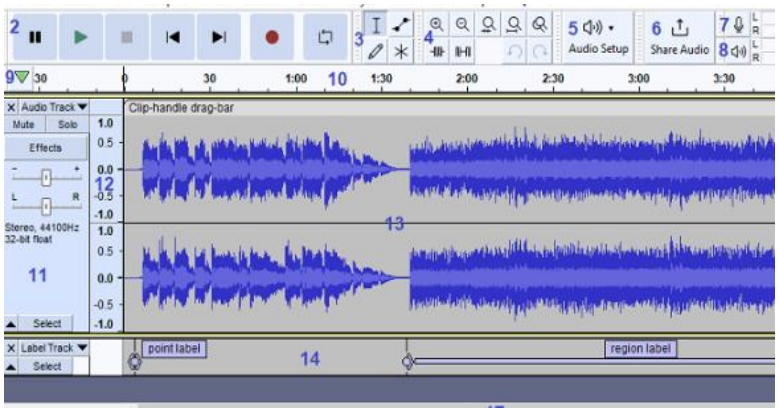

- Use a computer to record audio.
- Inspect the soundwave view to.
- Know where to trim my recording.
- Explain how sounds can be combined to make a podcast more engaging.
- Arrange multiple sounds to create the effect wanted.

Enquiry Questions

How do you record sounds?

How can you edit sounds?

How do you create a podcast?

Key Vocabulary

Input – Data that is sent to a program to be processed.

Run – To action the commands in a program.

Input device – Device used to record sound.

Output device – Device used to play sound.

Edit – Make changes to something.

Sound effects – Additional sounds used to improve content.

Layers – Data layered up on top of/next to each other.