Autumn 2 2025

What will Y3 read this half term?

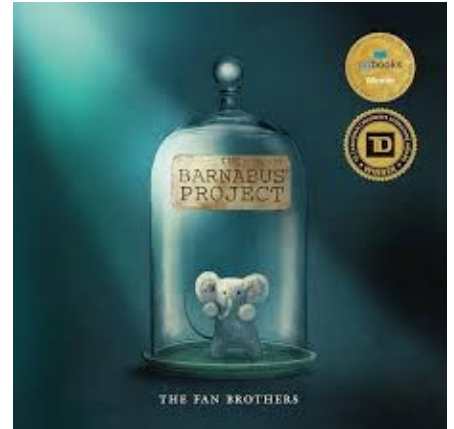

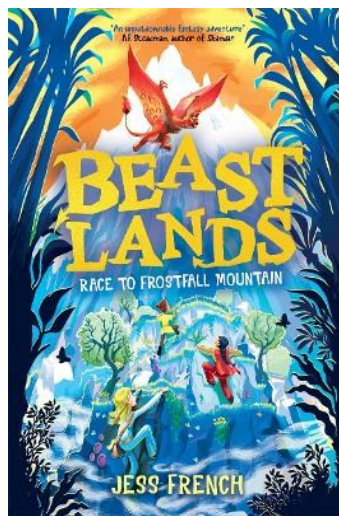

The Wild Robot
Peter Brown

When Roz the robot washes up onto the shores of an island, she doesn't realise how much she can still learn about friends and families. This wonderful book has been turned into a film, so make sure you get down to the cinema to see it!

Beast Lands: Race to Frostfall Mountain

Jess French

We read one of Jess French's non-fiction books last term, and now we will try one of her adventure stories!

The Barnabus Project
The Fan Brothers

In a strange underground laboratory, some fascinating creatures have been created...and imprisoned! Look out for our fabulous writing about this story this half term.
